Innovation Continues

Let me tell you, We, aelga, are an excellent manufacturer of houseware. aelga is situated in the seaside city of Qingdao, known for her convenience in transportation.

aelga is from the word "elegant" and is in the harmony sound of Chinese phrase "Ai Jia", which love our family". Our design idea roots in the harmony between the human and the nature. We step with European latest style. We hope we could bring the love for the family into every family the world along with our products. We also hope our love for the family could better the quality. The fascination raised by the sense of love in our heart makes us engaged in our family and with heart.

We have our own professional designers and factories. Annually we issue twice our latest according to the latest trends in the world. Our products are characterized by the elegant and functional model. We believe our good-looking and functional products will make our family more comfortable and beautiful.

We are qualified to present our customers with the products that they want and to satisfy our first-class sales, follow-up designing idea and the strict quality control guarantee our satisfying the diverse requirements of our clients and all the families. Our products include ware (such as glass jars, cruets, candle holders, glass plates, vases, cups and so on. ), porcelain steel products, wooden ware, kitchen ware etc.. All our products are appreciated by the customers in different countries. Our customers have faith in our standard administration and steady supply products.

You can believe: the more excellent our are, the more colorful your life is; the better our products happier and the healthier your life is. We will try our best to create and design more high-quality to ensure you enjoy your perfect life. Let's cooperate to create the much more beautiful and colorful tomorrow.
